

INAUGURATION OF MULTI-PURPOSE AUDITORIUM AT ADHIYAMAN PUBLIC SCHOOL IN COMMEMORATION OF AYODHYA RAM MANDIR CONSECRATION

Adhiyaman Public School, situated in Uthangarai, Krishnagiri district, marked a significant occasion with a special pooja in celebration of the Ayodhya Ram Mandir Consecration. The Nalaasiriyar. N. Srinivasan Multi-Purpose Auditorium was inaugurated during this auspicious event.

The inauguration ceremony was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. S. Thirumal Murugan, Chairman of Adhiyam Educational Institutes, along with Secretary Tmt. Shobha Thirumal Murugan, Administrative Officer Thiru. Ganapathiraman, Principal of Adhiyaman Matric School Tmt. Kalaimani Saravanakumar, Vice Principal Tmt. Abhinaya Ganapathiraman, Principal of Adhiyaman Public School Tmt. Leena Jose, and the Grantor of Srinivasa Educational Trust Tmt. Maliga Srinivasan.

The inauguration ceremony was attended by teachers from Adhiyaman Matric and Public School, who actively participated in this grand event. Students ranging from L.K.G to class 12 were enthusiastic participants, seeking the divine blessings of Lord Rama.

A special pooja was conducted during the inauguration, involving prayers and a yagna to seek the divine blessings of Lord Rama. Adhiyaman Public School teachers presented special sweets and fruits as offerings, accompanied by an instrumental procession.

The ceremony included a live telecast of the Ram Mandir Consecration from Ayodhya, which was displayed for all students and teachers. The event concluded with the distribution of prasad to students, bringing a sense of divine grace to the entire school community.

